Whether you are an expert or first-time novice, this is a perfect opportunity to experience two great British brands.

DATES: June 7 & 9, September 15 & 16, 2010

PRICE: £750 per person (includes refreshments/meals, transfers and cartridges)

THE FORMAT

- Tour of James Purdey & Sons, hosted by Richard Purdey (including the famous 'Long Room')
- Shooting at the West London Shooting School including a Game Flush
- Extended drive in two current model year Aston Martins
- Traditional Shooting Lunch

After shooting a variety of sporting clay targets, guests will take part in a simulated game flush before returning to the Lodge.

A number of Purdey guns, including the new Sporter, will be available for guests to try on the day.

JAMES PURDEY & SONS LTD (MAYFAIR)

Guests will enjoy a private tour of Purdey's Mayfair showroom and famous 'Long Room', which first opened its doors in 1882. The day will be personally hosted by Richard Purdey, a direct descendent of the founder. Whilst there, guests will be able to view a number of historic Purdey guns as well as examples of the current range, to understand first-hand the craftsmanship that goes into each one; be it the traditional Purdey side by side, the Woodward designed over and under or the more recently developed Purdey Sporter.

great instructors teaching at the school, but perhaps the most famous was Percy Stanbury. 'Stan' was widely regarded in his time as one of the country's finest shots ever, and it is his style of shooting and teaching that still forms the basis of West London's tuition today.

ASTON MARTIN DRIVING

Aston Martin is a name that needs little introduction. It has always stood for fine, high performance sports cars, designed and produced by skilled craftsmen, which bring to life the freedom and enjoyment of the open road.

As part of the Aston Martin/Purdey day, guests will have the opportunity to drive two different models of the latest, factory prepared Aston Martin cars in an extended drive through the Middlesex countryside. Each guest will be accompanied by an Aston Martin instructor who will explain the features and benefits of each model driven, providing an opportunity to enjoy Aston Martin at a very exclusive event.

WEST LONDON SHOOTING SCHOOL (MIDDLESEX)

Based just outside Northolt in Middlesex, the West London Shooting School is the country's oldest independent shooting school having been established for over 100 years. In this time there have been many
